Thant Sees Obstacles to U.N. Action, Calls for Restraint by All Parties

By Louis B. Fleming The Los Angeles Times

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Feb. 12—Secretary General U. Thant urgently appealed today for a conference inside or out-themselves seek it, according not a military approach, is the side the United Nations to negotiate a peaceful settlement of the war in Viet-Nam.

He indicated he will not summon a meeting of the Seenlarge the conflict.

Thant made the appeal in he still favors that plan. the form of a press statement after consulting with Ambas-recent events in Southeast erence to the Security Council sadors Roger Seydoux of Asia and particularly by the meetings last August after the France, President of the Security Council this month, and tion in Viet-Nam," Thant said. Council invitation was rejected Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, President of the General As-gard to the dangerous possi-Communist China, is not a tive, his press spokesman said. get out of control, would ob-No direct appeal will be made viously pose the gravest threat to delegations. No consultato the peace of the world." tions are planned with the in- The Secretary General interested parties unless they sisted that a political solution, to the spokesman.

In this context, the appeal versy. appeared to be nothing more than a reiteration of the press curity Council because of the statements made last summer call a meeting of the Security obstacles to direct U.N. action. by the Secretary General. Aa Council but said that a United But he urged all parties to a news conference in July he exercise retraint and to retrain specifically endorsed reconvenfrom any action which might ing the 1954 Geneva Conference on Southeast Asia. In- fact that some of the principal formed sources said today that parties are not represented in

"I am greatly disturbed by "My fear, frankly, is in re-by North Viet-Nam which, like bilities of escalation because member of the world organi-He plans no further initia-such a situation, if it should zation.

only way to solve the contro-

He also noted his authority under the U.N. charter to Nations solution is difficult "in view of its past history and the the United Nations."

This presumably was a ref-

Jacques Faizant, from Paris Presse

"I've been thinking it over." (The neutralization of Southeast Asia).